Baker Protests Disqualification

Brydon Baker, one of last semester's candidates for the office of Student Body Vice-president, has expressed displeasure at the manner in which he was disqualified by the elections committee on the eve of elections.

He was charged with forgery of teacher's signatures on an application form for non-existent students, Tabes Dorsalis, supposedly running for the office of Commissioner of Social Activities. Another charge against him was for a remark he made during the Nominations assembly, but this charge was dropped after finding that Skip Willis had given Brydon permission to speak.

"I was depressed and annoyed by what was going on, he said about the assembly. Brydon stated that there wasn't enough student involvement there. "I could go to Jessup's Farms, put a bunch of cows in one room and talk to them, and I would get a better response," he stated.

Brydon made it clear that his intentions for running a non-existent candidate for office was not to get himself disqualified and cause a big mess. His reason was to prove that a pretty face would get elected without a platform or a speech.

Volleyballers Vie In Playoffs

After completing a perfect season the "A" Volleyball team will enter the city playoffs February 23. The "B" Team finished second in league play with a 4-1 record.

The "A" squad centers the City Championships February 23 and will face the Play production, under the supervision of Mrs. Joan Peterson will perform "A Thurber Carnival" February 25 and 26.

Tickets are on sale in the student store for $1. Both performances will take place in Odin's Hall at 8:00 p.m.

The "Carnival" is a collection of James Thurber's writings in the form of black-outs. Several skits may seem familiar having been used on the television program "My World and Welcome To It".

Tom Green, Tim Sullivan, Bob McIntyre and John Wittenbel will perform original music written by Tom and Tim.

Morrissa Holzman, Eric Reichl and Felice Diamond choreographed the dance in "The Last Flower". Morrissa is also student director for the "Carnival."

Other actors include John Bracken, Michelle Bornstein, Steve Robertson, Joanne Curry, and Arthur Eisenman.

Also included are Judy Morrison, John Hill, Kathy O'Keefe, Dave Marcotte and Debbie Parsons.

Also Frank O'Leary, Cheryl Richards, Bill Poptanova, Mindy Shtzman and Tony Buelna.

West Valley Champion in the first round.

The viking "B" team also had a fine season, finishing with a 4-1 record and second place in the final league standings.

The annual alumni baseball game will be held Saturday at 1 P.M. on the Varsity baseball field. The game pits former Monroe Stars against the current baseball squad.

Bee, Cee Cagers Lose

Monroe's Bee and Cee Hoopsters suffered the tormenting taste of defeat once more after collapsing to the Poly Parrots, 53-39 and 49-37 last Wednesday afternoon at Poly High.

The Parrots, led by Steve Metz and Dave Kido, teamed up to score 20 points to help put the Vikings in their final deficit.

Despite the outcome of the ball game, the Vikings reciprocated the Parrot's mighty offense, when in the fourth quarter Harvey Maxey, Rich Gullixon and Mike Giovanizzi scored 12 of the Viking's 39 points.

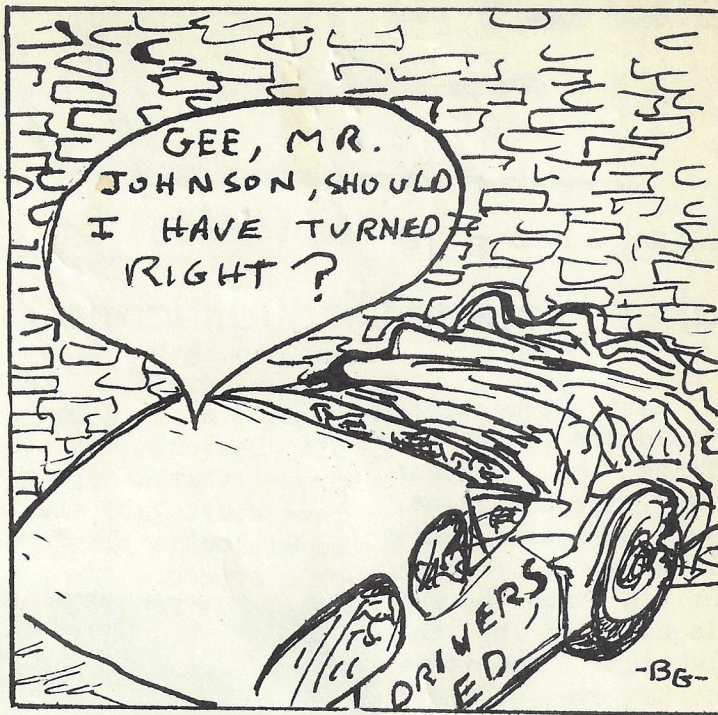

In the battle between the Ceas, it was relatively close all along. Steve Kleeman seemed to be the only hope for the Vikes for he scored 15 points. Despite Kleeman's effort, the Vikings failed to put it all together and were forced to bow to the Parrots.

Following Kleeman in scoring were Dan Oberly with four points, Corey Stone and Mike Motoyasu, both with three points, Dennis Rivas and Randy Furishiro, both with two points and Drew Bridges, who scored his first two points of the year.

If it's a movie you want that holds your attention until the end at which point you wonder why you bothered to come; a movie that has nothing to do with anything at all except a multitude of bird droppings in connection to some crazy murders; and a few scattered lessons on bird anatomy and/or how to fly like a bird by a professor who at the end turns into a bird himself-- Well my fine feathered friends, the movie for you is BREWSTER McCLOUD.

Students Take Top Spots In Contest

Two Monroe students Debbie Prang and Greg Purnell were awarded first and second place in an essay contest sponsored by the Valley Committee for the Handicapped, according to Mr. E. A. Miller, Principal.

Debbie was awarded $100 for top essay and Greg received $50 for second place in the 23rd Annual "Ability Counts" essay contest. Both will attend an Awards banquet in March.

Rap Room Opens

The Rap Room has changed its hours as of this semester. Formerly open from period two until period four and sometimes lunch, it now opens at nutrition and remains open during lunch and period five.

Students wanting to see either Mrs. Janelle Munn, or Mr. Irvine Lane before this time can usually find them in the attendance office. There will also be some graduate students from San Fernando Valley State College working in the room this semester.

Harrison Approaching Top

Now that the Beatles have completely dissolved themselves as a group, most of the members have decided to show their creativity as individuals by releasing their own albums. One of the best has to be George Harrison's "All Things Must Pass", which features the hits "My Sweet Lord" and "Isn't It A Pity". But the giant triple record collection contains many more inspiring numbers such as "What Is Life" all the way to Apple Jam, which is an entire record containing no vocals. The album also features many original and meaningful songs such as "The Art of Dying", "Run of the Mill" and "Apple Scruffs". Apple records plans to re lease "What Is Life" as a follow-up to "My Sweet Lord."

On the list of credits, one will find such names as Ringo Starr, Dave Mason and Bob Dylan as contributors.

The album has already hit number one on Cashbox Magazine's charts and is rapidly approaching the million dollar mark.
